

Since its inception more than 15 years ago, Aberdeen Tours has grown from one office to four different locations around the country. Concentrating on its three pillars of services to succeed; financial integrity, value products and customers first services, Aberdeen Tours has become one of the well known tour operators arranging both individual and group travel to Asia and beyond. Founding on the principals of superior value and customer satisfaction, Aberdeen Tours is proud to provide exceptional value and excellent services to the travelers both before and after their tour experience with Aberdeen Tours. In addition, Aberdeen Tours is a full member of the USTOA (United States Tour Operator Association) which each member is required to provide a $1 million insurance policy to cover any monetary lost to the traveling public because of default.

In our 2008 China & Asia Tour program, we have meticulously created programs that are suitable for first time travelers to experienced travel experts to cover the entire region. We are particularly excited of our tour Train to Tibet itinerary which for the first time, travelers can see the rare sights on the highland plateau in Qinghai and Tibet. In addition to diverse programs, our 2008 China & Asia programs are full of great value and flexibility. Lastly, all tours in our 2008 China & Asia program is guaranteed to depart as long as there are two or more travelers traveling together, subject to close out of the tour when it is full.

Aberdeen Tours' financial integrity, combined with its exceptional valued tour programs and "customer first" ideal, is your best choice for tour arrangement from one person to a 1,000 to Asia and beyond.

We look forward to welcoming you in China & Asia very soon!
